Title of the Paper in English

Please DO NOT identify yourself in this template. Authors should not make themselves recognizable in the text in order to enable double-blind peer review. Author details must be entered in separate cover letter and online during submission

ABSTRACT

The abstract should be clear, descriptive and not longer than 250 words. It should precise the paper giving a clear indication of the results it contains.

KEY WORDS: Key words (up to 8 keywords) are index terms or descriptions for information retrieval systems. Words selected should reflect the essential topics of the article and may be taken from both the title and the text

Please, note that this text should be identical with text and keywords you enter when you submit the paper online. You can copy/paste abstract text and keywords.

Introduction

The length of the manuscript should not exceed 20 pages (including notes, references, appendices, tables, figures, charts, etc.). A paper must be written in English in text processor Microsoft Word, using font Times Roman 12 pt, in Latin alphabet, single spacing. Page has to be of B5 (JIS).

Margins to be used: 3.3 cm top and bottom, left and right 2.6 cm. Please DO NOT identify yourself in this template. Authors should not make themselves recognizable in the text in order to enable double blind peer review and do not number pages and do not use headers and footers.

Formating

For text formatting, you should use the following sizes of font Times Roman:

Paper title: 16 pt bold, with an initial capital letter for any proper nouns, left aligned

Abstract: 11 pt bold, caps lock

Abstract text: empty line after abstract, 11 pt italic, justified, first line indentation 0.8 cm

Key words: empty line after abstract text, 11 pt italic

Body text: 12 pt, justified, first line indentation 0.8 cm, paragraph spacing: before 2 pt and after 2 pt

Footnotes: 10 pt, justified

Divide your manuscript into 2 non-numbered headings, as:

First Heading

First heading: left aligned, 13 pt bold, with an initial capital letter for any proper nouns, paragraph spacing: before 18 pt and after 12 pt

Second Heading

Second heading: left aligned, 12 pt bold, with an initial capital letter for any proper nouns, paragraph spacing before and after 12 pt

Equations

Equations and formulas should be inserted by equation editor (Insert/Equation) in Microsoft Word or MathType. Equations and formulas should be written in italic, numbered in parentheses by the right edge with one line left above and below, as:

$$v_i = f(x_{i1}, x_{i2}, \dots, x_{in}) \quad (1)$$

Tables and Figures

Tables must be made in Word or a Word compatible format and should be inserted into text and numbered consecutively with Arabic. Each table should be labelled with an appropriate title or short description one line above table in italics, 11 pt, centred, paragraph spacing after 6 pt, as shown in this instruction. Same data may not be presented both in tables and charts.

Table 1: Title of the table

Level of education	Unemployed women in 2014		Unemployed women in 2015
Primary school	21 178	24.4%	16 342	19.3%
Secondary school	54 047	62.3%	55 202	65.3%
College/Faculty	11 597	13.3%	12 975	15.4%
Total:	86 822	100%	84 519	100%

Figures, charts diagrams, block shemes and illustrations must be made using special software or scanned and inserted into text. Use black and white technique in 300 dpi resolution or above in order for quality of printed content to be acceptable. The photographs which are going to be scanned, should be sharp with high contrast. The title should be written in italics, 12 pt, centred, paragraph spacing after 6 pt.

Sources should be placed below tables, figures, charts, schemes etc. and should be written in italics, 10 pt, left aligned, paragraph spacing before 3 pt. References in the source are used in the same way as in the text.

Conclusion

Paper for Journal of Women's Entrepreneurship and Education should be submitted on-line at www.library.ien.bg.ac.rs/index.php/jwee. Also, during submission attached and the cover letter.

Acknowledgements

Acknowledgements to important contributors or supporting agencies, if any, should appear before references. All contributors who do not meet the criteria for authorship should be listed in an Acknowledgements section. Examples of those who might be acknowledged include a person who provided purely technical help, writing assistance, etc.

Where the research was supported by agency, authors should have a funding acknowledgement in the form of a sentence as follows, with the funding agency written out in full:

This paper is a result of research projects under the code 179015 (Challenges and Prospects of Structural Changes in Serbia: Strategic Directions for Economic Development and harmonization with EU requirements) financed by the Ministry of Science and Technological Development of the Republic of Serbia.

References

At the end of the paper put the list of the used references. The references should be typed in alphabetical order with the number in square brackets, justified, size 11 pt and used in accordance with the AEA reference style.

Quotation in the text should be written according to the following instructions: Author's last name, year of publication. Example: (Smith, Miller & Anderson, 2015).
