

Statement from the Editor-in-Chief

Mirjana Radović-Marković

The concept of the Journal of Women's Entrepreneurship and Education (JWE) is such that it gives the advantage to multidisciplinary approach to various subjects. It also emphasizes publishing of the scientific papers, which have an empirical and a research character. However, there is also the place in the Journal for quality theoretical papers as well, reviews of the latest publications of national and international significance.

Examples of topics which illustrate the scope of the journal are provided below:

- Female Nascent Entrepreneurs
- The Environment for Women's Entrepreneurship
- Corporate entrepreneurship and venturing Entrepreneurial teams from gender perspectives,
- The importance of women in the global labour force.
- National and international policy, historical and cultural studies in female entrepreneurship
- Gender, minority and ethnic entrepreneurship
- Investment climate barriers to female-owned firms
- Men vs. Women Entrepreneurs
- Career choices and balance
- Women Leaders
- Creativity and entrepreneurial thinking
- Enterprise and entrepreneurship education
- Policy options for strengthening the entrepreneurial competences of women
- Resourcing and managing innovation in entrepreneurial ventures
- How to boost female entrepreneurship
- Case studies.

The main text of a manuscript must be submitted as a Word document (.doc). It is strongly recommended that you use the author submission guidelines to help you to prepare your submission to the Journal. Authors should submit their manuscripts online.

We welcome manuscripts from academics, independent scholars, practitioners and students.

8th of October, 2014.

Editor-in-Chief
Prof. Dr. Mirjana Radović-Marković, academician

A handwritten signature in black ink, enclosed in a thin black rectangular border. The signature is written in a cursive style and reads "prof. dr. Mirjana Radović-Marković".